KETTLEMAN. A reporter last evening met Mr. Kettleman, the runner who is to compete with Gibson at the Fair grounds Friday. He had just arrived in the city from his home at Harper and taken rooms at the Manhattan. When asked regarding the forthcoming race he said it was to be a square contest and for blood. "I am now in good condition," he said, "never in better and have no excuse to offer, but will go in to win. My funds, too, are in the hands of my backers. This promises to be one of the hardest races I ever run. My distance is 100 yards and I had to agree to 150 in order to get the rare.
